—Dr. Loomis has his new barn framed and roofed, and will begin on his new house soon.
—Alba Childs and wife started to-day for San Francisco, expecting to be gone several weeks on a trip of pleasure.
—It is said that Mrs. Si Hart is to have a studio in connection with Heimstreet's new store and is to take charge of his art department.
—Judge Bick purposes to give two or three evenings entertainments the last of the week, as he and his pictures are still in the city.
—Tony Suarez has bought out Charles Marshall's barber shop, and is prepared to treat old patrons and new ones with his genial skill.
—C. B. Withington has returned from New Mexico, where he has been looking after the interests of his binder in the harvest fields of the far South.
—Thor Judd has returned from Philadelphia, where he has been attending a dental college. He is looking hale and hearty and is cordially welcomed home again.
—A. E. Morse is at home again, but expects to return to New Mexico early in May. He was not particularly charmed with Albuquerque and thinks he will select some other place for a home.
—The awnings are again going up, and in goodly numbers. Now if all the old wooden sheds could be torn down, and the cloth awnings substituted, what a marked improvement would appear.
—We are in receipt of the Educational Journal issued from the office of the State Superintendent at Madison. It contains much of interest not only to teachers but to all interested in the prosperity of the schools.
—In our notice the other day, of the mammoth dry goods establishment of T. A. Chapman & Co., Milwaukee, it was stated that their store covered a lot of ground 100x75 feet. This was a mistake—it should have read 100x175 feet.
—St. Patrick's church choir are to have a dramatic and musical entertainment in Lappin's hall on the evening of the 6th of May, to be followed by a dance in Apollo hall. It promises to be an evening crowded with enjoyment, as an excellent programme of varied attractions is to be offered.
—Rev. F. L. Chapell and family left this afternoon for Evanston, Ill., where they will meet the friends of their former home in the Wednesday evening prayer meeting, which Mr. Chapell will address. On Thursday morning they start for Flemington, New Jersey. They desire to tender their thanks to all the kind friends in Janesville, with whom they have been associated, for the many favors they have received while here, and to say that they regret that they have been obliged, by reason of the care and labor involved in preparing for departure, to forego the making of many calls, which their hearts prompted. They leave their best wishes and benedictions to one and all.
—The far-famed Salisbury's Troubadours are to appear at the Opera house Wednesday evening May 4. They visited here several times years ago and created the wildest enthusiasm. Since then they have made their extended European trip, and having made about an entire change of entertainment and wrought wonderful improvements therein, now come back to Janesville again. They will find a crowded house ready to greet them with enthusiasm and hearty welcome. The sale of tickets will begin to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock at Prentice & Evenson's drug store, and those who want the best seats should be on hand promptly. The tickets are seventy-five cents and no extra charge for reserved seats, so nothing can be gained by waiting. There will be a lively sale of tickets without doubt, as the reputation won by the Troubadours since their last appearance here will excite great curiosity to see and hear them once more.
—A large tobacco warehouse is to be built here at once, and will prove an enterprise which Janesville will gladly welcome. The owner is Oscar D. Rowe, who has so long been the railroad agent at Edgerton, and who has also been engaged in the tobacco business there quite extensively for several years past. He has sold out his interest there, resigned his position, and will now settle in this city, where he formerly lived, and where he still has many friends and acquaintances. The site chosen for the new warehouse is on High street, beside the railroad track, and the ground has already been cleared and the building material is being drawn. The warehouse will be 32 by 80 feet, with 20 feet posts, and will be completed and ready for use within thirty days. Mr. Rowe has already purchased many crops near here, and will be in shape to do a goodly share of this season's sorting, packing and shipping. The warehouse will employ many hands, will draw many farmers here, and will be in fact an enterprise worthy of the hearty welcome it will receive.

THE CHOSEN ONES.
These Who Are Liable to Survive as Jurymen in Cases in the Municipal Court.
The jury list for the Municipal Court has been made out, and it will be seen by the names herewith given that good men have been chosen. The plan of selecting these men is for the senior alderman and supervisor of each ward to each select twenty men. As will be seen, some of the wards have not forty names, but this results from the supervisor and aldermen each selecting the same men, which procedure does not seem to be prevented by the law. These names are placed in a box and drawn as may be required for a term or for a single case. The following is the list:

BEAUTY AND ELEGANCE.
A Look at Some of the Charlots and Cages Which Will this Summer Grace the Street Parades.
Some of the new chariots, wagons and cages built by Hodge & Buchholz for the Robbins & Colvin allied shows, are receiving their finishing touches from the skillful brush of J. B. La Grange, the artist, who has painted and decorated them in a manner which attracts the attention and excites the admiration of all. They are certainly the most beautiful of any which ever rolled forth in a street parade, and are so pronounced by visitors familiar with the preparations being made for other shows. They certainly exceed in beauty anything ever seen here, and if art has any power to excite enthusiasm, this showing will certainly do so wherever it appears.
There is one pony tableau car which is a marvel of beauty. Upon one side appears a skillfully painted scene, and on the other an Indian encampment, while on the end are marine views. The whole is surmounted by heavily carved heraldic designs, combining eagles and lions' heads, covered with goldleaf, and the corners of the car are finished as golden posts.
Then there is a mammoth tableau car of rare beauty and elegance. Its sides are covered with carvings of mythological designs, covered with goldleaf. Seahorses and dolphins stand forth in bold relief, and above appears a beautiful landscape with a golden eagle. The panel picture on the rear door is wonderfully lifelike, representing a man in a den of wild beasts. The whole is on chariot wheels, of gold, red and blue.
The ticket wagon is surely the finest ever built, and is no less artistically painted and ornamented. At the four corners appear figures representing the four seasons. Then there are landscapes and figures interspersed, there being fourteen in all. The rear presents a vivid picturing of a buffalo hunt, and above it is a dog picture of rare merit. Upon the doors appear bright lettering.
The musical car is a greater marvel than any. It has gorgeous chariot wheels, and the car proper has its sides adorned by golden harps, and its top surmounted by golden pipes. Then there are heavy carvings, richly adorned, and pretty little landscapes nestling here and there like gems of beauty.
There are four cages, built exactly alike, with round corners, but each painted differently. Two are of blue and two of white, but the adornments are varied in design, and they show great artistic ingenuity on Mr. La Grange's part, as they are all of his own design, and no two alike. There is fancy scroll work ending in figure heads, grasping other scrolls bearing bright lettering. One car is ornamented with Japanese designs, and upon all these cars appear original landscapes, which are very beautiful, and show the real skill of the artist. Any one of these cars would bear a long study to get at all of its beauty.
Messrs. Hodge & Buchholz deserve much praise for the workmanlike and substantial manner of their make, and the work of the brush of Mr. La Grange bespeaks more in his praise than any attempted description can do. It is an honor to Janesville to have such work roll forth from here, and it is saying little enough to assert that it will compare favorably with any produced anywhere for any show's street parade.

THE NEW COUNCIL.
Mayor Lovejoy Gives an Informal Address, Giving the Year's Outlook.
The Standing Committees for the Year, and Fixing of Officials' Salaries.
The Organization of a Board of Health, and Election of a President of the Council.
The Saloon Licenses.
Last evening the new city council met for the first time, Mayor Lovejoy presiding, and all the members present except Ald. Norris, who was necessarily absent. Mayor Lovejoy started on his inaugural address, but Ald. Fitzgibbon characteristically interrupted him, and inquired if notice of the meeting had been served on all the aldermen. After some delay Marshal Hogan was hunted up and he filed an affidavit that he had served the needed notice, and then the Mayor was allowed to proceed.
The Mayor stated that he had been so crowded with business for the past few days that he had been unable to frame a formal address. He briefly stated that the bonded debt of the city was $38,000, bearing interest at 7 and 8 percent. Of this sum $14,000 comes due October 1, 1881, and the balance in one, two, three and four years. It was necessary therefore this year to raise the $14,000 and the interest due on the balance, in addition to the regular taxes. The bonded debt comprised the whole debt of the city, the several wards being free from the usual annual deficiency.
He called attention to the following suits now pending against the city:
Clark vs. the city, on old bonds, damages claimed, about $15,000.
Clark vs. the city, interest coupons on old bonds; damages claimed, about $5,000.
Spencer vs. the city, damages from defective sidewalk, $1,000.
Skelly vs. the city, damages from defective sidewalk, $5,000.
Smith vs. the city, recovery of taxes paid, about $800.
Butler vs. the city, recovery of taxes paid, about $200.
Wilcox vs. Horne, recovery of horses impounded under the city ordinance.
Attention was also called to the fact that by the law establishing a municipal court, it devolved upon the council to procure a suite of rooms before June 1, for court purposes.
The fire department was reported as in excellent condition, and the Mayor renewed the recommendations of his predecessors in regard to building several cisterns in different parts of the city.
In speaking of the licenses the Mayor said that forty-three were issued last year at the rate of $50 per annum, and recommended that the coming year the price should be increased and the number decreased, and the law should be rigidly enforced.
He also called attention to the fact that it would be necessary to build one bridge and perhaps repair others, and there was but $1,500 in the bridge fund.
The highways are in fair condition, but the sidewalks needed much repairing and rebuilding, and their bad condition had already involved the city in litigation.
The parks have been improved greatly, and the good work should go on.
Manufacturing interests should be recognized.
THE COMMITTEES.
The following standing committees for the ensuing year were then appointed:
Finance—Nowlan, Conrad, Hemming, Judiciary—Robinson, Murdock, Nowlan. Police—Fitzgibbon, Norris, Hawes. Fire Department—Norris, Hemming, and Conrad.
Printing—Potter, Hawes, Robinson. License—Nowlan, Fitzgibbon, Conrad. Manufactures—Cox, Robinson, Potter. Schools—Murdock, Cox, Norris, Fitzgibbon, Hawes.
Gas Light—Hawes, Norris, Fitzgibbon, Cox, Murdock.
Highways and Bridges—Murdock, Nowlan, Hemming, Hawes, Norris.
Parks—Conrad, Nowlan, Fitzgibbon, Robinson, Potter.
Roads—Hemming, Conrad, Potter, Robinson, Cox.
CHOOSING A PRESIDENT.
On motion of Ald. Fitzgibbon the Council proceeded to ballot for President. Ald. Potter and Cox were chosen tellers and the vote stood:
Ald. Robinson was thereupon declared elected.
The rules of the last council were adopted as governing the new one.
THE SALOON LICENSES.
A motion that the council grant liquor licenses was carried unanimously.
Ald. Conrad called for the reading of an ordinance fixing the licenses at $75. The ordinance was read, and then Ald. Conrad moved a suspension of the rules, which was lost. Ald. Hemming, Fitzgibbon, Cox, and Robinson voting "nay."
Ald. Fitzgibbon moved that the licenses be fixed at $50. Adopted. Ayes—Hemming, Fitzgibbon, Cox, Robinson, Nowlan, Potter and Murdock. Noes—Conrad, Hawes.
TIME OF MEETING.
On motion the Council decided to hold its regular meetings on each alternate Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock.
MUNICIPAL COURT.
On motion of Ald. Robinson a committee was chosen to look up a room for the municipal court, and report at the next meeting. The Mayor named Ald. Robinson, Conrad and Potter.
SALARIES.
Ald. Conrad moved that the salary of the city clerk be fixed at $800. Ald. Fitzgibbon moved to amend by fixing it at $600. The amendment was only favored by Ald. Cox, Robinson, Fitzgibbon and Murdock, and was lost. The original motion fixing it at $800 was then carried unanimously.
Ald. Cox then moved to reconsider the vote, but this was lost. Ald. Cox, Fitzgibbon and Robinson alone voting for it.
Ald. Nowlan moved that the salary of the city attorney be fixed at $500. Ald. Fitzgibbon moved to amend by fixing it at $400, but the amendment was only favored by himself and Ald. Cox, and the original motion fixing it at $500 was carried, Ald. Fitzgibbon and Cox, of course, voting together against it.

Ald. Nowlan moved that the per diem of street laborers be fixed by the street commissioner at $1.50 per day. Carried.
Ald. Robinson introduced an order directing the city clerk to draw orders for the payment of the clerks and inspectors of election at $3 a day, and to draw orders paying for the rentals of polling places. Adopted.
THE BOARD OF HEALTH.
Dr. J. B. Whiting appeared before the council and called attention to the need of an efficient Board of Health to look after the sanitary condition of the city. He had been nominally a member of such a board for some years, and had held over from time to time, without any election being held; that he for one was uncertain what authority, if any, the present board held. He desired to give up any authority, if he had any.
The council decided to elect a Board of Health, and thereupon Ald. Robinson nominated Dr. Whiting as one of the members, but that gentleman declined serving, having already been in that position for years. The result of the ballot which was taken with Ald. Hawes and Nowlan, as tellers, resulted in Dr. Whiting receiving a unanimous vote.
A ballot was then taken for a second member of the Board. Ald. Nowlan nominated Dr. Robinson, and the vote stood: Robinson 7, Dr. Palmer 1, Dr. St. John 1. Dr. Robinson declined, stating that the Board was to consist of two physicians besides the council, and as he already belonged to the Board by virtue of his being an alderman, some other physician should be chosen.
Ald. Conrad named Dr. St. John, and the ballot resulted in electing him.
MISCELLANEOUS.
Ald. Robinson moved that the council should meet next Friday evening to receive applications for licenses. Carried.
Ald. Nowlan moved that the clerk be instructed to draw an order for $10,000 in favor of the Janesville, Beloit & Rockford railroad company.
Ald. Fitzgibbon moved that the matter be referred to the highway, street and bridge committee. Carried.
Adjourned.
DEATH OF MRS. M. C. SMITH.
An event not unlooked for, yet none the less sad, occurred this afternoon about 4 o'clock, it being the death of Mrs. M. C. Smith. For years past she has been in very poor health, and for the past two or three months there has seemed no hope for recovery, and the battling with disease came to a close this afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Smith were married in the East and came to this city about thirty-five years ago, and have resided here ever since, and are known and respected by all. There will be great sorrow felt for the death of the one, and great sympathy for the sorrow of the other. Besides the husband there are also left to mourn, three sons and one daughter, upon whom the loss of a noble mother falls heavily, and towards whom the sympathy of the entire community will also be extended. The announcement of the funeral will be made hereafter.
THE COTTON FAMILY.
Last evening there was a small audience in the Opera house to greet Ben Cotton and his supporting company in which the daughter and wife take leading positions. The play, "True Devotion," is a comedy-drama based on southern life, and giving an excellent chance for Ben Cotton to show forth some of the fund of fun which has given him such fame in minstrelsy. In the prologue he appears as an aged plantation darkey, "Uncle Zachariah," and does some very clever work, but in the drama proper, as "Bob, the bloodblack," he shows the best, and keeps the audience in a roar, yet touching occasionally upon the pathetic, and upon the noble-hearted.
His daughter, little Idaline, captured the audience by her personation of "Lillie the street singer." Her acting was wonderful for "a wee one," and her songs and banjo playing called forth enthusiastic applause. Her imitations of Aimee is "as pretty as a picture," was immense, and when she imitated Pat Rooney in his song and dance, the audience, cheered, cheered, had her sung again, cheered again, until at last she had to beg of them to excuse her "as it was too warm to sing more."
Miss Nellie Cotton as leading lady did well, and showed some histrionic talent. The rest of the company were pretty well balanced, and did fairly. C. G. Ray gave an excellent Irish character and E. C. Ellis took the Jew character quite well. J. R. Moryingham did fairly as Jerome Van Dyke the schemer and villain of the play, but there was too frequent a drawing of the butcher knife, and in fact throughout the play there was too lavish a use of knives, revolvers and the weapons of war.
On the whole the play was excellent and the company good, and those who missed the entertainment missed a really enjoyable one.
THE WEATHER.
REPORTED BY PRENTICE AND EVENSON DRUGGISTS.
The thermometer at 6 o'clock last night stood at 61 degrees above zero; at 1 o'clock a. m. to-day at 50 above; at 7 o'clock a. m. at 52 degrees above; at 1 o'clock p. m. at 65 degrees above. Partly cloudy.
The indications to-day are, for the upper lake region, clearing weather, preceded by rain, northwesterly backing to warmer south or west winds, rising followed by falling barometer.
Lunatic Inquirendo.
THE MAN WHO DENIED THAT THE EARTH WAS ROUND, was the same lunatic who neglected to take Dr. Thomas Electric Oil for his sore chest and lungs last month. Hence to his ashes. He was an idiot, but we hope he had a Christian burial.
